A collage of fresh vegetables. The top half features a variety of green bell peppers, some whole and some cut open to show the seeds. Interspersed among the peppers are several bright red tomatoes and one yellow pepper. The bottom half of the collage is a close-up of a green bell pepper, with a small, cut-open green pepper in the foreground. The overall lighting is bright, highlighting the textures and colors of the produce.

A sunset over the ocean with a white text box containing the title 'Books I Want to Read'. The sky is filled with orange and yellow clouds, and the water is dark blue with white foam from a wave in the foreground. The text 'Books I Want to Read' is written in a dark blue, serif font on a white rectangular background.
